

CORRIGIN
Farm Improvement Group

JOB OPPORTUNITY: Agricultural Project Officer

Don't miss this rewarding career opportunity to join the Corrigin Farm Improvement Group (CFIG) in the exciting role of AGRICULTURE PROJECT OFFICER.

We are a dynamic and vibrant Grower Group based in the Wheatbelt town of Corrigin, WA. The group provides members and the wider agricultural community with innovative, timely and relevant research, development and extension, in addition to connecting and supporting local growers and industry to be in front of the trend.

As CFIG's Agriculture Project Officer, you will enjoy a varied role, assisting in the development and implementation of trials and projects, data management and fieldwork at trial sites, organising interactive field walks and workshops for our members. You will be assisting growers in ensuring sustainability and resilience of their business, while being part of a supportive and welcoming team environment. This position will provide a highly rewarding career and further develop networks across many sectors.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and hardworking individual to coordinate on-ground research and development in the CFIG region.

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA:

- Bachelor degree in Agriculture or related discipline, or significant relevant experience.
- Broad understanding of agricultural and Australian broadacre farming systems, products, and technologies.
- Highly developed organisational and administrative skills, with the ability to prioritise tasks and meet deadlines.
- Knowledge and experience in agricultural research, trial management including trial monitoring and writing scientific reports.
- Ability to work independently and be self-motivated, show initiative and work productively as part of a team.
- Excellent attention to detail, with strong oral and written communication skills.
- Must be an Australian citizen/permanent resident.
- Current "C" class drivers licence essential.

SALARY: Salary package negotiable based on experience.

POSITION: Negotiable (full-time position preferred).

If you, or someone you know, feels this is a position you can excel in, please contact our Executive Officer for further information and job description form, or visit the SEEK link for more information.
